VILLA IN THE GOLDEN MILE

This charming semi-detached corner house is located in a picturesque Andalusian village-style complex, unique in its traditional Andalusian architecture. Located just a short walk from the renowned Puente Romano resort and the beaches of the Golden Mile, the semi-detached house is spread over three levels and enjoys a west orientation. From midday, the house receives plenty of natural light, allowing you to enjoy beautiful sunsets from the terrace in the evenings. Although the property is in its original condition and needs updating, it is an excellent opportunity for those looking to customize their dream home in one of Marbella's most desirable areas. Upon entering the house, you are greeted by a bright and inviting living room with a fireplace for those cooler winter evenings. The space flows into a kitchen with a utility room and dining area with beautiful views of the comple...
