Charming Andalucian style, ground floor beach side apartment 1 minute walk to the beach This is a cosy, somewhat quirky, yet charming apartment in a typical Andalucian style beachside community. Two well sized bedrooms and two bathrooms (recently refurbished), with a semi open kitchen on to a split level dining room and lounge. There is an additional lounge (previously a covered terrace) which extends the living area and leads out to the large private, south facing patio which has views across the relaxing and mature gardens. Uniquely, the terrace extends on to what feels like a private garden area. It's a well maintained property, ready to move into as a holiday home for a young family or, as a retirement apartment for a couple with the opportunity to put your own stamp on it. The community: A very family orientated community, safe for children to roam freely and play with no ca...
